

Prior to the introduction of the auto what was the major source of pollution in the cities?

Why were the first autos not purchased in large quantities?

When was the moving assembly line first made operational?

From the worker's perspective what is the major drawback of the assembly line?

Why did Ford double the prevailing wage rate at his auto plant?

What impact did increased levels of auto ownership have on the demand for roads?

What was significant about the River Rouge plant?

How did the Great depression affect working conditions in the auto industry?

What was the function of the Service Department at the Ford company?

The United Auto workers targeted what company for its first labour action?

What is significant about Feb. 11, 1937?

What is significant about April 1, 1941?